

Finance Intern – Athens Designer Outlet

A fantastic opportunity has arisen for a senior student to join the McArthurGlen Athens Finance team for a temporary period (3-month or 6-month), as part of their curriculum's industry practice*.

McArthurGlen Group is the leading developer, owner and manager of designer outlet villages in Europe as well as a strong partner for the world's leading fashion and luxury brands. The Athens Designer Outlet is located approximately 25 km from the Athens city centre and 15 minutes from the Athens Airport.

The Intern will support the Finance team with regards to accounting, financial and administrative tasks and will gain significant exposure to the function's activities as well as experience in the real estate and retail industries. Responsibilities will include handling of accounting records and financial information, data entry, assistance with accounts receivable, accounts payable and tax compliance issues as well as ad hoc finance projects.

The Intern will be a major in Accounting / Finance / Business / Economics or related field, with a very strong academic track record, a passion for learning and the eagerness to move from theory to practice. Attention to detail, the ability to multi-task in an organised and structured manner and strong communication skills are essential to this position. Applicants must be proficient in Excel and the main Microsoft Office applications and possess a good command of written and spoken English.
